

MORGAN AND HOW HE SEES THE WORLD

Morgan is now 18. He'll soon be turning 19. When he took these photos, he was just 17. An astonishing talent, considering that, before taking these photos, he'd never held a camera in his hands, apart from his rather basic smartphone. That could – and still can – take photos too; but everyone sees things differently through a digital camera than they do through a phone.

Morgan's view of – and into – the world

It's worth mentioning that Morgan grew up in one of Kenya's largest slums, Korogocho. His father left the family early on. His mother works all day. The challenges for him and his brother were – and still are – considerable.

Opposite, directly across the road from their flat, is the TEDS COMMUNITY HUB. He helps out there from time to time, supporting the Hub in its activities. Not only here, but also when he's wandering through his 'hood', he doesn't just look. He contemplates, observes and takes it all in. With his camera in hand, he has captured some impressive images: Morgan and the way he sees the world.

MORGAN NA JINSI ANAVYOONA ULMWENGU

Sasa Morgan ana umri wa miaka 18. Hivi karibuni atatimiza miaka 19. Alipopiga picha hizi, alikuwa na umri wa miaka 17 tu. Ni kipaji cha kushangaza, ukizingatia kwamba, kabla ya kupiga picha hizi, hakuwahi kushika kamera mkononi mwake, isipokuwa simu yake ya mkononi ya kawaida. Simu hiyo pia ingeweza kupiga picha – na bado inaweza; lakini kila mtu huona mambo tofauti kupitia kamera ya kidijitali kuliko anavyoyaona kupitia simu.

Mtazamo wa Morgan kuhusu – na ndani ya – ulimwengu

Inafaa kutaja kwamba Morgan alikulia katika mojawapo ya mitaa ya mabanda mikubwa zaidi nchini Kenya, Korogocho. Baba yake aliiacha familia akiwa mdogo. Mama yake hufanya kazi mchana kutwa. Changamoto kwake na kwa kaka yake zilikuwa – na bado ni – kubwa sana.

Kinyume chake, moja kwa moja ng'ambo ya barabara kutoka kwa fleti yao, kuna KITUO CHA JUMUIYA CHA TEDS (TEDS COMMUNITY HUB). Husaidia huko mara kwa mara, akisaidia Kituo hicho katika shughuli zake. Sio tu hapa, bali pia anapokuwa akizunguka katika mtaa wake, hatazami tu. Anatafakari, anaangalia kwa makini na anachukua kila kitu akilini mwake. Akiwa na kamera yake mkononi, amepiga baadhi ya picha za kuvutia: Morgan na jinsi anavyoona ulimwengu.
